Dear Steve,

Thanks for following up on my mortgage experience. First of all, I heard about you on WAEB during the Bobby Gunther Walsh show. I checked your website and saw the testimonials of many happy customers that you've helped in the past. I was then very impressed by your prompt and patient explanations to remortgage questions I had prior to our meeting at your office. Once at the office, you were just as helpful and informative. My "original" mortgage provider never was as helpful as you were. Also, the "cushion" of funds that you incorporated in the mortgage was just what I needed to get back on track.

It was a pleasant experience in every aspect. I felt totally comfortable with your financial expertise. As you explained, the possibility of my mortgage being sold off to another financial institution did exist. Well as fate would have it, after two months, my lending institution changed back to the "original" mortgage provider! In the end, I'm a lot wiser due to your help. Thanks again for a seamless experience. I would recommend you to anyone who needed mortgage or remortgage services.

I also want to thank you so much for the "welcome home" gift certificate. I will use it in the spring toward two new doors.

Most sincerely,

Victoria Ann Elovski
