

I was referred to Steve & Denise at the Mortgage company through a co-worker of mine. He overheard me complaining of the stress and aggravation my mortgage company was causing me during my first home purchase. My co-worker told me I didn't need to go through all of this aggravation, and that I should see his friends at the Mortgage company.

One of the smartest moves I ever made! Steve sat me down and reviewed everything with me, and suddenly everything was crystal clear, and my confidence with my first home purchase was restored. I ~~would~~ would and will recommend the Mortgage Co. to everyone. It was truly a pleasureable experience! Thanks again Steve & Denise!

Sincerely,
